McLean-Eames.
The wedding of Miss Carrie Mc-Lean and Mr. Alfred Eames took place last evening at the Central Union church, the Rev. H. P. Judd officiating. A yellow color scheme was used both in the decorations of the church and in the gowns of the bridesmaids, Miss Laura Atherton, Miss Eara Pratt and Miss Ruth Anderson.
Miss H. McLean, the maid-of-honor, was in delicate blue and carried a silver basket of red roses. The bride was a picture in her gown of heavy white satin and point lace, with a fluffy tulle veil caught with orange blossoms. Mr. Eames was attended by his brother, Mr. Francis Eames, as best man, the ushers being Messrs.
Edmund Hedemann, Allan Renton and Watson Ballentine. Following the ceremony, a supper was tendered the bridal party at Maunaloa, the Nuuanu home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. McLean.
Cecile Breuther roses and lilies of the valley made a charming decoration for the table. After their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Eames will reside at Wahiawa, where the groom has business interests.

A feature of the beautiful wedding last evening was the musical program on the organ, rendered by Mr. A. B.
Ingalls. Besides the "Bridal Chorus" by Wagner, for the entrance, and the Mendelssohn "Wedding March," the following program was given with impressive effect:
Prelude and Fugue in E minor, Bach Pilgrim Chorus (from "Tannhauser") Grand Chorus (from "Tannhauser")
Two Melodies (from "Tannhauser") Cantilene (from Eleventh organ sonata) Rheinberger

Of Interest Here.

November has been chosen as the month for the marriage of Miss Chettanna M. Nesbitt, the attractive young daughter of Dr. Jennie Nesbitt of San Jose, whose engagement to Lee Scott Borger, U. S. N., was recently announced.

Miss Nesbitt will be married in Santa Rosa, at the home of her aunt, Dr.
Elizabeth Linn, and the ceremony will have all the brilliant features of a navy wedding.

Mr. Borger is a naval constructor, an Iowa man, who has been stationed at Mare Island for the past two years. He is popular in the navy set, both at the yard there and about the bay.

His fiancée is a Stanford graduate with the class of 1912, and during her college days she was an active member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. She has a host of friends in college and navy circles. She is a niece of Dr.

R. B. Linn, of Vallejo, and is a frequent guest at the navy yard hops.— Exchange.

Doyle-Tinker.

A wedding of great interest in service circles is that of Lieut. Clarence Leonard Tinker of the 25th U. S. Infantry and Miss Madeline Doyle, daughter of Mrs. Katherine Doyle, which took place this morning at St.
Augustine chapel, Waikiki, Father Valentin officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Mary Quinn and Miss Genevieve Tinker as bridesmaids, while Lieut. O. H. Saunders served as best man and Lieut. V. V.
Enyart as usher. The ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast at the Macdonald, where the bride was being living. After the honeymoon, Lieut. and Mrs. Tinker will reside at Schofield Barracks, Lihuehwa, where the former is stationed with his regiment.

The talk of the social world this week is centered largely upon the Venetian Carnival on Saturday evening, most everyone being actively engaged in preparing a costume for the occasion. Of course all those taking part in affairs will appear in some grand Venetian costume with silks and satins and velvets, stiff starched ruches and quaint jewelry. Others who prefer not to be so gorgeous will go as peasants in short pleated skirts, laced bodices and more caps. The various committees have adopted distinctive costumes for their booths.
Those in charge of the home-made candy will wear peasant dress—red skirts with big black aprons, black laced bodices over white blouses with square red caps. Mrs. Montgomery Macomb will go as a Venetian lady and Mrs. Walter Dillingham as Beatrice D'Este, though the others on the lancade committee will content themselves with humble Italian costumes. The flower booth will be tended by ladies in peasant dress adapted from Titian's portraits. They will wear black pleated skirts with high black bodices over white waists with straps of the black over the shoulders. Bright colored sashes about the waist, and red kerchiefs tied around the head will finish the costume.

The punch committee will wear Italian dresses of red and green with a high Venetian headdress.
The refreshment committee will content themselves with white dresses, caps and aprons with a rosette badge of green and red. All the other ladies will be costumed in Italian style from the simple peasant maid to the lady of high degree.

The spectators too are not going to be outdone in Carnival spirit, and all kinds of original ideas are being put into costumes. Of course there will be many who will prefer ordinary dress, but naturally, a fancy disguise of some kind—not necessarily Venetian—is much more to be desired.

The gates at the Outrigger will be opened at half past seven and promptly at eight fifteen the program will commence. Seven beautiful dances of the old Italian school will be given on a stage erected in the lagoon.
General dancing will then follow in the Outrigger pavilion. Various cool drinks, candy, cigarettes, flowers and other tempting articles will be on sale at the gay Italian booths. Even the most bored and blasé old sober-sides is promised an evening of gaiety at this unique affair.

Mrs. John M. Ellicott, of Vallejo, Cal., was a dinner hostess recently, entertaining informally for Captain and Mrs. William M. Cross, Pay Director and Mrs. Charles M. Ray, Captain Frank J. Schwable, U. S. Marine Corps, and Mrs. Schwable, and Captain Berton W. Sibley.—Army & Navy Journal.

Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Abeken of the navy, who passed through Honolulu recently en route to Guam, are comfortably established in their pretty home and are enjoying the tropical life in the little island. They have already been made the motifs for considerable entertaining.

Returning from a honeymoon in the Eastern states were Judge and Mrs. W. B. Lymer (Callie Lucas) who arrived on the Mongolia yesterday.
Their wedding which took place in August, was one of the social events of that month.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Waldron were outgoing passengers on this morning's Wilhelmina, to be for a year or more on the mainland and in Europe.

Mrs. and Mrs. Ben Baldwin announce the engagement of Miss Ida Orange, of Norway, and Mrs. Guy Rankin of Makaweli. Both of the young couple are well known in Hawaii, the former as a sister of Mrs.
Eric Knudsen, and the latter as a kamaaina of Kauai.

Among those returning on the Mongolia yesterday were Mrs. Harry Gray and little son Percy. Mrs. Gray has completed an extensive tour of the Eastern states.
Miss Florence Yarrow has returned to Honolulu after two years on the mainland and abroad.

mony took place at California Club Hall several weeks ago and was attended by over a hundred of the friends and relatives of the young couple. The place was beautifully adorned with roses and lilies, and afterward there was a reception.

Dr. and Mrs. Waddell are remaining in town a fortnight and will then go to Visalia to reside.—Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Selby, who left San Francisco in June for a trip around the world, after spending three months in Honolulu, resumed their wanderings today, going to New Zealand and Australia. During the winter they will make a leisurely tour through India and Egypt. The summer will be spent in Switzerland, after which they will do the Continent thoroughly. It will probably be two years before San Francisco will see them again.—Exchange.

SICK, SOUR STOMACH, INDIGESTION OR GAS

Take "Pape's Diapiesin" and in five minutes you'll wonder what became of misery in stomach.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother, if your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; your head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapiesin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapiesin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.
If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapiesin which costs only fifty-cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.—advertisement.
